At the Annual Meeting, shareholders will be asked to do the following:

1. Financial Statements:
Receive the audited financial statements of Western for the financial year ended December 31, 2019 and the auditor’s report thereon.
2. Directors:
Elect the board of directors of Western for the ensuing year.
3. Auditors:
Appoint Deloitte LLP, of Calgary, Alberta, as Western’s independent auditors for the ensuing year and authorize the directors to set their compensation.
4. Equity Compensation Plans:
 - a. To consider and, if thought advisable, pass an ordinary resolution, the text of which is set forth in the accompanying Management Information Circular and Proxy Statement to approve all unallocated stock options under Western’s stock option plan, which is required by shareholders every three years; and
 - b. To consider and, if thought advisable, pass an ordinary resolution, the text of which is set forth in the accompanying Management Information Circular and Proxy Statement to approve all unallocated restricted share units under the restricted share unit plan, which is required by shareholders every three years.
5. Other Business:
Consider any other business that may properly come before the meeting.

The Management Information Circular and Proxy Statement previously distributed to shareholders and available on Western’s profile at www.sedar.com provides further details on the matters proposed to be put before the Annual Meeting. Note that the Management Information Circular and Proxy Statement will not be updated to reflect the change in location of the Annual Meeting.

You have the right to vote

The board of directors of Western has set the close of business on March 16, 2020 as the record date for determining those shareholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting.

Your vote is important

The Management Information Circular and Proxy Statement previously distributed to shareholders and available on Western’s profile at www.sedar.com and Western’s news release dated April 9, 2020 provide instructions on the various methods that a Western shareholder can use to have their Common Shares voted at the meeting including instructions regarding voting by mail, by internet or by phone.

Cautionary Note on 'In-Person' Attendance

In light of ongoing concerns related to the spread of COVID-19 and in order to mitigate potential risks to the health and safety of its shareholders, employees, communities and other stakeholders, Western is providing facilities to allow its shareholders to participate in a format whereby registered shareholders and duly appointed proxyholders may attend and participate in the meeting virtually via live audiocast. Western will strictly enforce provisions of corporate law that only entitle registered shareholder and duly appointed proxyholders to attend the meeting in person and reserves the right to restrict in-person attendance at the Annual Meeting depending on available health and safety information at the time of the Annual Meeting and make such arrangements as are deemed prudent or necessary under the circumstances. Western welcomes all shareholders and others who wish to attend the Annual Meeting to do so by joining the virtual audiocast and not to attend the Annual Meeting in person. The ability of shareholders and others to attend the Annual Meeting in person is also subject to any governmental orders applicable at the time of the Annual Meeting which might prevent or restrict shareholders and others from attending in person.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
